Rev. Richard A. Storr The Christian & Missions Alliance Church THE IMPORTANCE OF PRAYER

In the Gospel of John 15:4-5. Jesus had these words to say:

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit itself, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without me ye can do nothing.

can do nothing.

No born again Christian can ever hope to dovingly influence the life of another (to "bear fruit") unless he abides in his Savtor, Jesus Christ. This experience of "abiding in Christ" is one which every believer must know in order to fully enjoy and appreciate the Christian life.

To abide in Christ means to depend upon Him, or trust Him, and to have precious fellowship with Him. Prayer is our means of fellowship and leads us to depend upon Christ for life's strength For it is as we pray that we "abide" in His love, grace, and power.

"abide" in his love, grace, and power.
William Barclay, the great New Testament expositor, has said that a consistent, effective prayer life one which receives the blessing of God "will mean arranging life, arranging prayer, arranging silence in such a way that there is never a day when we give ourselves a chance to forget Him."

Prayer keeds us in contact with chance to forget Him."

Prayer keeps us in contact with God. We should avail ourselves of this privilege to talk to Him anytime and anywhere. This is our spiritual right and we should be using it.

Someone has so aptly said: "If your day is hemmed with prayer; it is less likely to unravel." Prayer is really the key to starting eyery new day. As you pray to begin your day, you will find the day will hold together, regardless of the circumstances.

God wants to make your life of the circumstances.

God wants to make your life fulfilling and happy, but He first needs your complete trust. He wants each of His children to bring every worry, and every concern to Him in prayer. Why begin any day with unnecessary worries and concerns? Bring them to the Lord and allow your day to start so differently and to finish so very much brighter.

Abiding in Christ through prayer is one way to truly experience
