On September 21, 1960, a daughter, Rhonda, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jeffers. She has three brothers and sisters, Janet, Robin, and Rob.

Rhonda has a headstart on being a mother, since she has a little son named Scott Lee who was born July 25, 1977. Scott's father's name is Rick Lee Hancock.

She was a cheerleader and on the softball team in ninth and tenth grade. In her Junior year she went to BOCES for Secretarial Education. This year she is arranging her courses so that she can leave early and spend this time with her son, Scott.

After graduating she would like to work at a secretarial job.

On December 15, 1959, Mr and Mrs. Jerry Greene were the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy named Christopher Vincent Greene. Chris has a sister, Stacy who is eleven years old. He now lives in Greenwood, but soon will be moving to East Valley, Andover. Chris has played one year in baseball and has taken three years of trade and electricity at BOCES as you can tell, he would like to be an electrician in his later years.

Chris's hobbies are hunting, motor cycling, and fishing. He might get married after a while here for the Library Institute held at the Andover Free Library.

All the departments of Andover School were present at a Patriotic Program, Friday. All grades took part and the ACS Orchestra provided the music. Others taking part were: Margaret Folsing, Joseph Lynch, Louis Harrison, Susan O'Donnell, Genevieve Mead, Roberta Church, Martha Eldridge, Paul Alderson, Ralph Williams, Charles Howland, Malcolm Brundage, Frances Brundage, Winona Early, Doris Yeager, Lloyd Gee, and Claire Greene. Harry Drevas presented the school with a beautiful flag and Clifford Howland, on behalf of the school, made the acceptance speech.
