Mrs. Helen W. Allen

Mrs. Helen W. Allen of 25 Center Street, died early Monday morning, December 26, 1977 in the Salamanca Nursing Home, after a long illness which resulted from a broken hip.

She was born in Piffard, N. Y. September 3, 1894, the daughter of Bert and Eva Rebbar Weller.

On June 4, 1914 she married John J. Allen of Dansville who was killed in an auto accident in 1931.

A former Country School Teacher, she was a graduate of the Genesee Normal School which is now a State Teachers College. She was a member of Geneva Presbyterian Church and a resident of that city while her children attended Hobart College, William Smith College and Geneva High School.

She had also lived in Mt. Morris, Rochester, Orlando, Fla., and Elmira before moving to Andover four years ago.

She is survived by one son Ralph A. Allen of Andover; two daughters, Mrs. Carol A. Ryan of Cobleskill, and Mrs. Letha A. Acor of Orlando, Fla.; three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren;
